8. Conditions of Study

- 8.1 Individuals eligible for the initial registration for enrollment as students at Chulalongkorn University must have successfully completed their education according to the high school curriculum in the sixth year of high school (“Mattayom 6”) or its equivalent. If the university later finds that the education was not completed or the qualifications are incomplete as specified, the university will deem the enrollment eligibility as void and reserve the right to withhold the application fee, admission confirmation fee, and tuition fees in all cases.

For individuals who have completed their education at international schools in Thailand or abroad that are not accredited by the Ministry of Education, their qualifications must be certified according to the announcements made by the Council of University Presidents of Thailand regarding the criteria for equivalency of educational qualifications to the high school level in the selection process for personal admissions to universities. (For details on the criteria for equivalency of educational qualifications, please refer to <http://mytcas.com>)

- 8.2 Those eligible for enrollment as students at Chulalongkorn University after their initial registration have completed the process. If the university later finds that anyone has used false or forged documents for application, selection, or enrollment, their right to study at Chulalongkorn University will be revoked, and they may also face criminal prosecution according to the law.

9. Tuition Fee and Additional Fee

Tuition fees and program fees are determined in accordance with Chulalongkorn University's announcements.

Announced on October , 2025
